

EXPLORING OUR POTENTIAL GROUP

Exploring our Potential is one of three group programs of the Women's Empowerment Series.

In this group, you will:

- explore your strengths, skills and identity;
- examine needs, priorities and options for making positive changes in your life; and
- consider goals and steps that you can take to reach them.

Tasks and activities will allow space for you to have “me time” along with time to share and learn from other group members.

This is a free program

Talk to us about childminding, TTC, and other accommodations.
